Career Opportunity Development, Inc. (CODI) Seeking Holiday Donations

(Egg Harbor, NJ) - Career Opportunity Development, Inc. is seeking organizations and individuals who would like to adopt CODI for the holidays. CODI is asking for donations of gifts for individuals who participate in programs within the organization. Often times many of these individuals may not receive a gift for the holidays and CODI would like to make sure this does not happen. CODI is asking for the communities help in obtaining the following suggested items: Men's or Women's– hat, gloves, scarves, socks, perfume, hair care products, watches, bathrobes, pajamas, and toiletries; Men's T-shirts large, X-large or 2X; Women's T-shirts all sizes, nail polish, jewelry; brush and comb sets; small duffle or gym bags; belts, wallets, hand bags, puzzles, word search books, craft sets – latch hook, notebooks, pens, construction paper, or markers. Gifts can be wrapped (please indicate what the item is on the bottom of the gift) or unwrapped. Additional items are welcome and can be dropped off at the CODI office at 901 Atlantic Avenue, Egg Harbor City no later than December 11th. For further information please contact Cathryn Flammer at (609) 965-6871 or log onto or website at www.njcodi.org.
